Andrew R. Gottesman joined Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. in 2024 and is a Member of the firm and leads the firm's Bankruptcy & Reorganization Department. He enjoys a national practice which focuses on advising clients in bankruptcy and corporate restructuring on matters including debt and business restructuring, creditors' rights, distressed asset transactions and distressed trading.

Over the course of his career, Gottesman has represented debtors, secured lenders, unsecured lenders, asset purchasers, asset sellers, equity holders and has been in-house counsel at JP Morgan Chase. During the last major economic crisis, he clerked for the Hon. James M. Peck in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

Prior to joining Rosenberg & Estis, Gottesman was a partner at Mintz & Gold LLP and headed the firm's Bankruptcy and Restructuring practice. Prior to that, he worked in the Business Reorganization and Restructuring departments of two major law firms and ran his own successful practice.

Gottesman is a graduate of St. John's University School of Law, where he was an editor of the American Bankruptcy Institute Law Journal. Gottesman regularly appears in bankruptcy courts throughout the country and has completed the American Bankruptcy Institute/St. John's University School of Law Bankruptcy Mediation Training program.
