Zachary J. Rothken joined Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. in 2018 and is a Member and Head of the firm's Administrative Law Department. His practice focuses on complex rent regulatory issues concerning rent stabilization and rent control. Rothken counsels prospective purchasers, sellers and lenders in performing due diligence on properties subject to rent regulation. He also represents property owners in administrative proceedings before DHCR and other administrative agencies, including matters involving substantial rehabilitation, rent overcharge and regulatory coverage. Rothken handles matters at all administrative stages, including petitions for administrative review, Attorney General investigations and TPU audits. Rothken's practice also includes representing property owners in a wide variety of litigation matters, including Article 78 proceedings, Supreme Court plenary and class actions and landlord-tenant summary proceedings.

Rothken earned his J.D. at Hofstra University School of Law and received a Bachelor of Science degree from Yeshiva University. While in law school, Rothken served as Articles Editor for Volume 30 of the Hofstra Labor & Employment Law Journal. He co-authored an article titled Limits on Sovereign Immunity in the Post-NASA v. Nelson Era: Greater Government Liability for Negligent Hiring, which was published in the Summer 2013 volume of the New York State Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Journal.

When DHCR issued proposed amendments to the Rent Stabilization Code in August 2022, Rothken swiftly conducted a live webinar for firm clients to address the major changes found in the RSC proposed amendments. The webinar drew in the highest attendance of any Firm webinar to date. Rothken was subsequently invited as an expert speaker to RSC webinars hosted by the Community Housing Improvement Program (CHIP) and the Rent Stabilization Association (RSA). In December 2022, Rothken was published in the New York Law Journal with his co-authored article, "Administrative Rulemaking and DHCR's Proposed Amendments to the Rent Stabilization Code."
